- 7. Apart from the SMA Komendatura, which comprises twelve officers, and a MVD plateon of approximately forty-five men, no other troops are at present stationed in Gustrow. The MVD billets are situated in the Grabonstrasce.
- 8. The two former Wehrmacht barracks in Gustrow have both been completely dismentled; Only the foundation walls now stand. This dismentling was begun in summer 1947, but was speeded up at the beginning of October 1947 by an increased number of German workmen under the supervision of a Soviet officer. The job was completed by mid-October 1947. All the dismantled parts were transported away by rail.
- 9. Since early October 1947 there has been a large-scale compulsory return of Soviet families to the USSR from Gustrow, Rostock, Warneminde, Greifsweld, Schwarin, and Ludwigelust. According to a lieutenent working with the Greifswald Komendatura, a SMA order has been issued commanding all Soviet families (as far as Mecklenburg-Vorpommern is concerned), to return to the USSR within the next three months.
- 10. All Russian families in Mecklenburg and Brandenburg have suddenly left for Russia. This happened about 20 November 1947.
